

Fishing game

Cut out the sea creatures. Add some dots on the reverse and attach a paperclip to each creature. Make a simple fishing rod out of a small magnet attached to a piece of dowelling with string.

Put the creatures into a pretend pool and encourage children to try and fish them out. Can they count how many dots are on each creature? Can they add together the dots on two or more of their catch? Who can collect the most?

