

Choosing places

Enlarge and cut out the words below and hang them on a washing line. Invite children to add the 'forgotten' word somewhere that makes sense. Remind them that capital letters and full stops are missing.

Sentence	Forgotten word
Happyland Park was losing visitors	now the owner spoke to the manager	worried the manager called a meeting	short the keeper was given instructions	animal the trainer put the snake in its cage	cross the monkey jumped down the visitors laughed	when the visitors photographed the zebras	fast