

The riddle card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

I can be a verb or a noun.
What am I?

I am an
adverb.
What am I?

I am an adjective.
What am I?

I can only be a verb.
What am I?

I am a
seven-sided shape.
What am I?

I am an eight-sided
shape.
What am I?

I have 72 sweets
and want to share
them evenly with eight friends. How many sweets do we each receive?

I am a square
number that falls
between 20 and
35. What am I?

I am a prime
number that falls
between 20 and
26. What am I?

I buy nine boxes of seven cakes for my party. How many cakes do I have altogether?

I am an idiom
that means
'very similar'.
What am I?

I am an idiom
that means
'feeling unwell'.
What am I?

The riddle card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

whisk

quickly

beautiful

read

heptagon

octagon

8

25

23

63

peas in a pod

under the weather

The compound card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

light

house

cup

board

play

ground

cloak

room

every one

clock

work

The compound card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

47

53

28

72

44

56

19

81

22

78

66

34

The pairs card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

$$136 - 53$$

$$29 + 54$$

$$220 - 70$$

$$80 + 70$$

$$183 - 66$$

$$33 + 84$$

$$500 - 250$$

$$125 + 125$$

$$375 - 150$$

$$90 + 135$$

$$199 - 87$$

$$99 + 13$$

The pairs card game

See page 41 of Junior Ed PLUS, May '09 for instructions for playing this card game.

You spread this on your toast. It is sweet and made from fruit.

This happens when traffic builds up on the roads and can't move.

You wear this on your wrist and it tells you the time.

You do this when you want to see a programme on television.

You do this with your hand to say hello or goodbye to someone.

This is a surge of water in the sea that topples onto the beach.

This is a group of musicians who play together.

This is made of rubber and you can use it to keep things together.

If you are healthy and exercise regularly then you are probably this word.

When your clothes are the right size for you then they do this word.

You use this to walk a dog.

You are in this if you are winning a game.