

Name _____ Date _____

Planning a playscript

There are lots of things to think about before you write a playscript. Use these questions to help you.

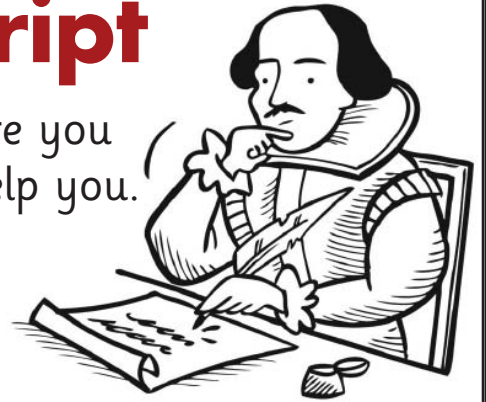

ILLUSTRATION © ANDY ROBB/BEEHIVE ILLUSTRATION

Where is your play set?
When does it take place?
Who will the characters be?

What will they be like? (Consider costume, voices, personality.)

How will the play begin?

Who will be on the stage?

What will happen? (The plot.)

Will it be a comedy or a tragedy?

How will it end?

Are there any special effects? Will you use audience participation?